2. Letter No.C2/9886/2017/DTE dated 17/3/2017, 27/3/2017 and 31/3/2017 received from the Director of Technical Education

ORDER

As per the Government order read above, Government have approved the rules and regulations of the revision 2010 Scheme of Diploma courses conducted in Polytechnic Colleges in the State of Kerala. As per clause 02 of the rules, the maximum duration permissible for acquiring the Diploma course shall be 6 academic years from the month of first registration for the programme. Many students could not pass out within this period and lost their chance of acquiring Diploma. Such students have requested to conduct examinations again and such requests are increasing in number. In view of the urgency, the Director of Technical Education has conducted one series of examination in anticipation of Government sanction during November 2016 and requested ratification by Government.

Government have examined the matter in detail and in partial modification of the clause 02. duration of a programme, in the rules and regulations of revision 2010 scheme of the Government Order read above, order that the maximum duration permissible for acquiring the Diploma course will be 8 academic years from the month of first registration for the programme.

The action of the Director of Technical Education in having conducted the examination in the revision 2010 scheme for the students admitted during the year 2010, in November 2016, in anticipation of Government sanction is hereby ratified.
