10. Selection of Candidates

10.1 Selection of the candidate is based on the grading in SSLC/THSLC or equivalent Examination. For the students who have passed qualifying examination under the old scheme (prior to Grading System), marks are to be converted to 9 point absolute grade.

- a) Grade/Mark is to be converted to 9 point absolute scale as follows,

Grade	A+	A	B+	B	C+	C	D+
% of Marks	>=90	>=80	>=70	>=60	>=50	>=40	>=30
Point	9	8	7	6	5	4	3

Note: For those who have passed the qualifying examination under the old scheme (prior to Grading System), and with marks for individual papers with less than 30%, and have the eligibility for higher studies, will be considered to have passed the paper in D+ grade for calculating the score in 9 point absolute scale.

Calculation of weighted grade point average and index

Stream I

- The Weighted Grade Point Average 1 (WGPA1) is the average of sum of grade points of Mathematics and Science multiplied by 0.7.

$$\text{WGPA1} = \frac{\text{Sum of Grade Points of Mathematics physics and chemistry} \times 0.7}{\text{No. of subjects in Mathematics physics and chemistry}}$$

- The Weighted Grade Point Average 2 (WGPA2) is the average of sum of grade points of subjects other than Mathematics and Science multiplied by 0.3

$$\text{WGPA2} = \frac{\text{Sum of Grade Points of Subjects other than Mathematics, physics and chemistry} \times 0.3}{\text{No. of subjects other than Mathematics physics and chemistry}}$$

- The sum of WGPA1 and WGPA2 will yield Total Grade Point Average (TGPA)

i.e. $TGPA = WGPA1 + WGPA2$

Stream II

- The Weighted Grade Point Average 1 (WGPA1) is the average of sum of grade points of Mathematics and Science multiplied by 0.7.

$$WGPA1 = \frac{\text{Sum of Grade Points of Mathematics and English subjects} \times 0.7}{\text{No. of subjects in Mathematics and English}}$$

- The Weighted Grade Point Average 2 (WGPA2) is the average of sum of grade points of subjects other than Mathematics and English multiplied by 0.3

$$WGPA2 = \frac{\text{Sum of Grade Points of Subjects other than Mathematics and English subjects} \times 0.3}{\text{No. of subjects other than Mathematics and English}}$$

- The sum of WGPA1 and WGPA2 will yield total Grade Point Average (TGPA)

i.e. $TGPA = WGPA1 + WGPA2$

Penal Point : 0.5 for candidates who have passed the qualifying examination in second chance.

Bonus Point : Either the candidates who are natives of backward districts namely Pathanamthitta, Idukki, Malappuram, Wayanad, Kasargod or they studied in schools from VIII to X std belonging to any one of the above backward district, a bonus point of 1 will be awarded for the index score calculation for their selection in the respective backward district.

Index score for Stream 1 = TGPA for stream I - Penal Point + Bonus Point

Index score for Stream 2 = TGPA for stream II - Penal Point + Bonus Point

- Grades/Marks of all papers of a subject will be considered separately if the subject has more than 1 paper in the qualifying examination.
- Marks of physics and chemistry or science(if physics and chemistry are not shown separately) will be counted wherever applicable

10.2 Preparation of rank lists:

- a. Rank list of centralised allotment shall be prepared and published in the Website.
- b. The rank list of Stream I programmes will be prepared on the basis of Index Score for Stream I calculated and the allotment will be done strictly on the basis of the rank list for these programmes.
- c. The rank list of Stream II programmes will be prepared on the basis of Index Score for Stream 2 calculated and the allotment will be done strictly on the basis of the rank list for these programmes.

d. Resolution of Tie while ranking:

For the purpose of resolution of Tie in both the streams candidate with higher WGPA1 in the stream concerned will be placed higher.

If tie still persists

- i) Stream I: Candidates with higher Average Grade Point (AGP) in Mathematics (Average Grade Point of different papers if more than one paper is included for the subject in qualifying examination) will be placed higher in the ranking. In case, tie exists further, higher Average Grade Point (AGP) in Physics (if physics is not a separate subject, average grade point for science is taken into account) it will be considered. If the tie exists further, Average Grade Point (AGP) in English (Average Point of different papers if more than one paper is included for the subject in qualifying examination) will be considered. If there is still a tie, the age of the candidate will be taken into account and the older will be placed higher in the ranking than the younger.
- ii) Stream II: Candidates with higher Average Grade Point (AGP) in Mathematics (Average Grade Point of different papers if more than one paper is included for the subject in qualifying examination) will be placed higher in the ranking. If there is still a tie, the age of the candidate will be taken into account and the older will be placed higher in the ranking than the younger.

10.3 Publication of Provisional Ranked List: The Provisional rank list prepared will be published in the website. Candidates can also verify their individual rank in the list through the link provided in the website. Candidates are advised to verify the Provisional Rank lists and satisfy themselves regarding their position in the list, such as inclusion under different categories, eligibility for community/special reservation, option details submitted, etc. If candidate has any complaint in this regard, candidate should approach the Principal of the Polytechnic College where original application was submitted with specific request within 3 days after publication of the list, for necessary action. Complaint received thereafter will not be entertained.

10.4 Along with the Publication of Provisional Ranked list, a Trial allotment will be done. The candidate can check the trial allotment from website to get an idea about the chances of getting allotment to a programme and college based on options exercised in the application form and the rank of the candidate. Inclusion in Trial allotment list does not guarantee that the candidate will get an allotment in a Polytechnic College and programme. The candidate has the facility to submit revised options if required, to the Principal of the Polytechnic College where the original application is submitted, in the Prescribed Form, (See Annexure XVII) within 3 Days after publication of the Trial Allotment, for necessary action. Revised options received thereafter will not be entertained.

10.5 Publication of Final Ranked List & First Allotment: The Final Ranked list prepared will be published in the website. Candidates can also verify their individual rank in the list through the link provided in the website. Along with the Publication of final Ranked list, first allotment will be done. Final Ranked list and allotment will be based on the rank of the candidate & options.

10.6 Inclusion of name in the ranked list will not entitle the applicant for admission for the programme, unless the applicant satisfies the rules regarding the eligibility for admission as laid down in the Prospectus. Furnishing of false particulars would result in the forfeiture of the candidature, as well as cancellation of admission to the programme. If any information or documents furnished along with the application by a candidate are found false or ineligibility for admission detected before or after admissions, candidature of the applicant will be withdrawn and admission if any given will be cancelled. Fake documents if submitted, will attract appropriate legal action.

11. Centralised Allotment Process (CAP)

11.1 The Centralised Allotment Process will be done through the Single Window System (SWS) of allotment to give allotment to various programmes and Polytechnic Colleges, based on the options/re-options exercised by the candidates. Candidates can exercise options to a maximum number of 30 of his/her choice (programme and institution combination) eg: chemical engg in Govt. Polytechnic College. Kalamassery can be one option and Mechanical engg in Cherthala Govt. Polytechnic can be another option. Such type of a maximum of 30 options can be given in an application form.. Allotments will be strictly based on the options exercised, Rank obtained and eligible reservations for the candidate. Candidates should register options only to those programmes/ colleges which they are sure to join on allotment. Candidates should join the allotted college/programme remitting required fee and submitting certificates if he/she is allotted with his/her first option, within the stipulated time. If the candidate fails to join the college, he/she will lose the existing allotment and will not be considered for any further allotment.

11.2 The allotment will be published in the website www.polyadmission.org. Separate Memo will not be sent to the selected candidates.

11.3a) General Rules related to allotment process:

- i. If a candidate is allotted the first option in respect of programme and institution, he/she is bound to join the allotted option in the stipulated time, otherwise he/she will lose the candidature.
- ii. If a candidate is satisfied with the offered allotment, even though the same is not his/her first option, he/she can join the option by cancelling the higher options. The same cannot be changed at later stage and such candidates will not be considered for further higher options. However he/she may be allowed to attend the spot admission (only to existing higher options), as decided by the authority and notified later.
- iii. If a candidate is not satisfied with the allotted option he/she can claim for higher option by retaining the existing allotment by registering the same at any of the Govt./Aided Polytechnic Colleges by submitting his/her certificates of eligibility. In such case the candidate can join the existing allotment if he/she failed to get any higher option later, until the last date for joining fixed for the final allotment. In further allotments after registration, if the candidate gets higher options, the existing allotted option will be cancelled and the newly allotted higher option will be retained. However the candidate is bound to join his/her allotted option after the final allotment. However he/she may be allowed to attend the spot admission (only to existing higher options), as decided by the authority and notified later.

Note:- [Before submitting the certificates, the candidate should make sure that he/she will join the allotted option in the final allotment even if it is not his/her first option]

- iv. If a candidate is not satisfied with the allotted option, he/she can claim for higher option by forfeiting the existing allotted option by registering the same at any of the Govt./Aided Polytechnic Colleges. Now the candidate will be eligible for allotment to higher options only.

- v. The same procedure furnished above as per 11.3a) i to 11.3a) iv will be followed in all further allotments.
- vi. A Candidate is bound to join the programme allotted in the final allotment failing which he/she will not be considered for further allotments. However he/she may be allowed to attend the spot admission (only to existing higher options), as decided by the authority and notified just before the spot admission (if any).
- vii. A candidate not offered any allotment, will continue to retain his/her candidature and will be eligible for further allotments/spot admission if any.

Note: [Spot admission will be conducted only if vacancies exist even after the fourth allotment. The eligibility to attend spot admission will be decided by the authority later and notified before spot admission. Spot admission will be conducted institution wise depending on the vacant seats in each college. Those interested candidates permitted to attend spot admission will be required to register at the institution of their choice in the stipulated date and time. A provisional select list of the registered candidates will be published and admission to vacant seats will be based on this list.]

11.3 b) Procedure of admission:- Candidates selected for admission in the allotment in any of the Govt./Govt. Aided/ Self Financing(Govt. Quota) can take the printout of the allotment letter from the website and proceed as follows:

- (i) A selected candidate who has obtained his/her first option have to join the programme allotted and should report to the allotted Government/ Government Aided/Self financing(Govt. Quota) Polytechnic College with allotment letter, required fees(including PTA and College Development fund) and all the original documents. It comprises of all original eligibility documents including qualification, fee concessions, reservations, transfer and conduct certificate. The candidate should submit the documents at the institution and receive the admission slip after proper scrutiny by the College authorities along with the receipt of documents submitted.
- (ii) A candidate who wishes to join the allotted programme and institution other than the first option can do so by cancelling his/her higher options and by reporting to the allotted Government/ Government Aided/Self financing(Govt. Quota) Polytechnic College with allotment letter, required fees(including PTA and College Development fund) and all the original documents. It comprises of all original eligibility documents including qualification, fee concessions, reservations, transfer and conduct certificate. The candidate should submit the documents at the institution and receive the admission slip after proper scrutiny by the College authorities along with the receipt of documents. Since then, the only option for him/her to get a higher option is to attend the spot admission(if any), which may/may not be allowed as decided by the authority and notified just before the spot admission.

- (iii) A selected candidate who doesnot wish to join the programme allotted, but wish to continue in subsequent allotments of higher choice should report at his/her convenient Government/ Government Aided Polytechnic College with allotment letter and original eligibility certificate (certificates proving qualification and reservation) and submit the higher option retaining format (Annexure XVII) within the stipulated time and receive a confirmation for his/her reporting. However the candidate will continue in the further allotment process until a higher option is allotted. His/her current allotment and lower options will be cancelled.

The candidate can modify his/her higher options at the time of reporting. No further opportunity will be given to move to lower options and/or to retain cancelled options. The candidate will be allotted higher options if any, in subsequent allotments if eligible. However the allotment to higher options cannot be claimed as a matter of right as it depends on the availability of vacant seats.

- (iv) A candidate who got allotment of his/her choice, fails to report at any of the Government/ Government Aided Polytechnic Colleges within the stipulated time, will forfeit his/her eligibility for the entire admission process.

Candidates are advised to strictly adhere to the date and time of his / her reporting. No extension of time for reporting to the college will be granted under any circumstances. A candidate who does not turn up for reporting as per allotment, at any of Govt./Aided Polytechnic College and time notified, will forfeit his/her chance for admission.

11.4 However, if a candidate is not able to attend the Polytechnic College on the reporting date on genuine grounds, the Parent/ Guardian, or any authorized person can act as proxy at the risk of the candidate on production of authorization letter in the form given in Annexure XVI along with original documents as per Clause 11.3 and Clause 11.6.
